

Roles & Chapter Outline

Project Manager (DRI for the group) - Mateo 👑 Coordinator of the entire project. They make sure tasks are assigned, set deadlines, and ensure everyone is on track. They act as the main point of contact between team members and help resolve any conflicts that may arise. The project manager ensures that the project progresses smoothly and meets its goals.

History Supervisor - Dylan 🌵 , Claire 🍵 The History Supervisor plays a critical role in ensuring the accuracy, completeness, and historical significance of the content presented in the book. This role oversees the research process to ensure that all relevant aspects of the historical topic are explored, ensures that historical events and developments are presented within their proper context, and that readers understand the interconnectedness of different historical events and their broader implications. From a content perspective, the History Supervisor ensures that the book tells a compelling and meaningful historical story and makes a strong case for the historical significance of the event.

Editors and Proofreaders - Max 🇨🇳 , Mateo 👑

Editors and proofreaders review content for grammar, spelling, and overall coherence. They edit and refine the text, ensuring clarity and consistency in writing style. Editors also work closely with the research team to fact-check the content. Their role is vital in producing a polished and professional final product.

Art Director - Ben 🎲 , Claire 🍵

The Art Director plays a crucial role in ensuring the visual aesthetics and artistic coherence of the book. They collaborate with the project manager, writers, and graphic designers to conceptualize visual themes that align with the historical topic. Overseeing the work of graphic designers and illustrators, the art director guides them to create visually appealing and historically relevant images and layouts ensuring consistency of visual elements throughout the book.

Graphic Designer/Illustrator - Max 🇨🇳 The graphic designer/illustrator creates illustrations, graphics, and layouts that enhance the overall appeal of the book. This role is crucial for creating visually engaging content and capturing the attention of readers. They work closely with the writers and editors to integrate visual elements seamlessly with the text.

Video and Audio Producer - Ben 🎲 , Claire 🍵 , Dylan 🌵 , Mateo 👑 , Max 🇨🇳 The Video and Audio Producer is responsible for incorporating multimedia elements into the project, adding depth and interactivity to the historical content. This can include interviews, reenactments, animations, and audio narrations, providing a multi-sensory experience for the readers.

Researchers/Writers - ALL

This role involves in-depth research on the historical topic. Researchers gather information, analyze historical sources, and compile accurate and engaging content for the book. They work to write compelling narratives and ensure the historical accuracy of the information presented.

Individual roles/responsibilities summarized:

Mateo- Project Manager, editor and proofreader, video and audio producer, researcher

Max- editor and proofreader, graphic designer/illustrator, video and audio producer, researcher/writer

Ben- art director, video and audio producer, researcher/writer

Dylan- history supervisor, video and audio producer, researcher/writer

Claire- history supervisor, art director, video and audio producer, researcher/writer

Chapter Outline

1. Introduction: the beginnings of the Manhattan Project - Mateo

- How it came to be
- context (WWII, Germany, Russia)

2. Building the Bomb - introducing key figures - Claire

- Oppenheimer
- Lawrence
- Fermi
- Truman
- Heisenberg
- science behind the bomb

- construction of manhattan project sites

- recruiting members

3. Testing and dropping of the bombs

- preparing for the test
- significance of trinity test
- video/interview content
- dropping the bombs on Hiroshima and Nagasaki

5. Perspective -Claire

- Indigenous perspective
- American perspective

-Russian

-Japanese

6. Aftermath - consequences and legacy - Ben

- historical significance
- add Canadian contribution
- Cold War