

MY LEARNING VISION, MISSION, AND VALUES

Finnegan Wendel Gerhard Hofbauer

Updated October 2024

VISION

The ideal future state that describes you on graduation day.

1-3 sentences, a statement about who you want to be

A dedicated and enthusiastic learner, with systems and habits to effectively learn, apply and utilize new concepts in my studies and work.

great!
good
room for growth

MISSION

Your purpose for this school year that aligns actions with your vision.

Base off intention statement, make it more corpo vibe, concise, avoid boast.

I'm enhancing my organizational systems, focusing on project planning and task tracking. Additionally I will establish and reinforce habits that aid timely completion of schoolwork, such as allocating dedicated time for extracurricular activities and waking up earlier to accommodate work before school. Alongside that, I would like to focus on extracurricular activities, like clubs and volunteering to gain experience and contribute to the community. ~

VALUES

The Success Behaviours you will use to achieve your mission.

Preparation

I arrive at school earlier to allow time to review work and content for the day. ✓

I will create and expand my organizational systems to help me keep track up all upcoming work. ✓

I will utilize time blocking and schedule my at-home time to allow for completion of assignments. —

Self-regulation

I'll develop effective work strategies to minimize distractions and focus on work by priority —

I identify and mitigate sources of excessive stress in my work and personal life.

I avoid overwork, set realistic expectations, and avoiding comparing my work to others

Communication & Collaboration

I am a leader in group work, helping to maintain organization and enable collaboration. ✓

I help facilitate group discussion and ideation, helping all voices be heard ✓

I clearly define my ideas and thoughts before attempting to communicate with others ✓