

Barney

---

By Oliver and (Tristen)

Setting

The story takes place on an island in the middle of nowhere isolated from the rest of humanity.

Foreshadowing

there are subtle hint here and there like Tayloe being framed, barney actively trying to sabotage the scientist plans, For instance. Barney throwing away the key to his research and the scientist's misinterprets his cries of joy as barney trying to warn him.

Conflict

Human vs Nature Because barney is a rat and animals count as nature.

Theme

The Story shows Barney's Evolution over the days framing Tayloe one his man obstucles, Learning to write so he can make a suicide note for the scientist and ultimately kills him.

- Characters
- 1.Barney Antagonist
- 2.The Scientist
- 3.Tayloe

Irony

Was That the Scientist saw himself more inteligent and mighty than other but in the end, he wasn't that smart because he got outsmarted by a rat

Overview

Barney is a science Fiction book. About the Consequences of fiddling with life. A small rat goes under Experiments to increase its intelligence, But what happens when it gets too smart.

Barney later goes on to frame Tayloe of sabotaging the Scientist work and by getting Tayloe fired he has more free range, where Barney learns to understand English. Which he later uses to make a suicide letter for the scientist.