

Evaluating Credible Sources

Objectives:

- To be able to differentiate between credible online sources, fake news and clickbait
- To understand how to evaluate a website for credibility

Skills you will need:

- Thinking: Critical and Reflective Thinking
  - Using implicit or explicit criteria to analyze and critique online sources
  - Investigate sources by gathering, interpreting, and synthesizing information and evidence to draw reasoned conclusions

Step 1: Practice Evaluating Information Online

You will begin this assignment by taking the Social Media Test Drive \(LINK\). Follow along with your Digital Literacy teacher as they help you complete the first two sections of this online activity (LEARN and PRACTICE). You will then need to complete EXPLORE and REFLECT sections on your own. Be sure to check your answers when you're done!

Step 2: Take the Quiz!

After you've finished the Social Media Test Drive activity, you will need to complete the Form in Teams to receive credit for this assignment. Don't forget this very important step!
