How does the artifact you selected demonstrate strengths & growth in the communication competency?

In what ways might you further develop your communication competency?

Self-Reflection

I show that I listen by giving my full attention to the subject that we are learning about. To properly understand during class, I like to listen and take notes as we go so that I am fully focused, it's important to take into consideration what everyone says in class so that you can get multiple views on a certain subject.

To communicate my understanding, it takes me a few tries to figure out the right combination of words in order for me to present my learnings in a way that other people will be able to understand. I find that I learn better visually so it is challenging to expect others to take away what I am trying to convey just by listening.

It's also important for me to understand the topic before I write/topic about it so that it can come out as clear as possible to the reader and listener. What works for me is reading multiple sources – which is what I did for “les annés folles à la radio” so that way I could get multiple perspectives on the event to form my own. The area that I can improve on is deciding what information is necessary because I struggle with eliminating not relevant information which makes me end up talking to fast and it could become confusing to the listener. This project helped me by forcing me to edit out not relevant information and helped me to get right to the point with a lot of the topics.

Another way to further develop the communication competency would have been to work in a group to gain an even better understanding of the topics trying to be communicated, by receiving even more perspectives, and it could have been a way to further build communication strategies.
